

IT BEGINS WITH a BOOK

A Monthly Series of Special Book Talks & Presentations

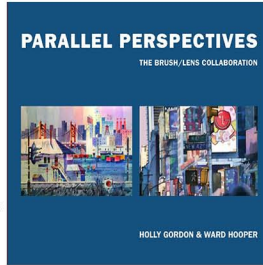

Literature entertains and inspires. It brings us together, makes us laugh and makes us think. As we spotlight the published works of Long Island authors, we will explore art and history, the world of fiction and the natural world.

June 8, 2023

Holly Gordon

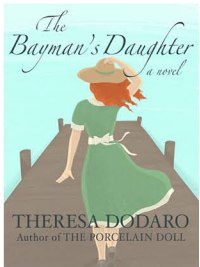

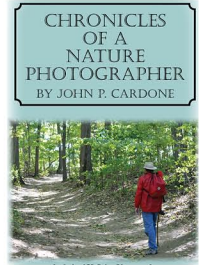

“Long Island Landscape Inspires Real-Life Fairy-Tale”

September 7, 2023

John P. Cardone

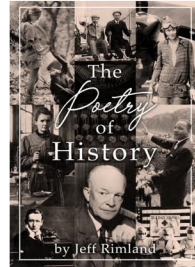

“Chronicles of a Nature Photographer”

July 6, 2023

Theresa Dodaro

“Bringing History to Life”

October 5, 2023

Jeff Rimland

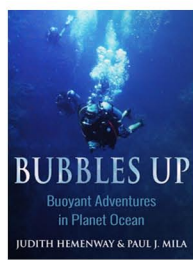

“Poetry’s Meaning & the Poetry of History.”

August 3, 2023

Paul Mila

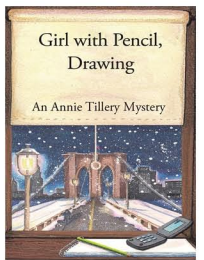

“Bubbles Up”

November 2, 2023

Linda Maria Frank

“Art, Not Art: Which are the Fakes”

Join us on the first Thursday afternoon of each month at 2 PM for a unique author presentation that will engage your mind, spark your creativity, and uplift your spirit. And it all begins with a book.

Please note: A book signing will follow each presentation.

Plainview-Old Bethpage Library

999 Old Country Rd., Plainview, NY 11803

516-938-0077

All featured authors are members of the Long Island Authors Group

